

CHILDREN'S SHELTER VOLUNTEER DRESS CODE

CLOTHING	APPROPRIATE	INAPPROPRIATE
Polo\Golf shirts	X
Tank top\halter top		X
Sleeveless dress\blouse	X
Clean, wrinkle free denim jeans	X
Slogan T-shirts		X
Logo only t-shirts (no slogan)	X
Sweat shirts (no slogans)	X
Midriff tops		X
Oversize t-shirt or sweater		X
Hospital scrubs (nurses only)		X
Leggings & pedal pushers	X
Stirrup pants (non clinging)	X
Capri pants	X
Sweat pants		X
Skirts\dresses (length or slit more than 2" above knee)		X
Skirts\dresses (length or slit less than 2" above knee)	X
Shorts (more than 2" above knee)		X
Shorts (less than 2" above knee)	X
Overalls	X
Hats, ball caps (brim forward)	X
Frayed or torn items		X
Slip on\mule shoes\clogs (without back strap)		X
Open toed sandals		X
Tennis shoes\keds	X
Flip flop\thongs		X
Platform shoes		X
Earrings (on ear lobe only)	X post only
Dangling\hoop earrings		X
Visible body piercing (other than earrings on ear lobe)	X
Fingernails (more than 1/2" past end of finger)		X
Hair color\styles (spiked or Mohawk, unnatural hair color)		X
Tattoos (visible)	X

Definitions:

Dangling\Hoop earrings-earrings that a child can put their finger through and pull out.

Leggings – tight fitting knit or spandex pants

Oversized sweater or shirt – baggy and hanging off the shoulder

Platform shoes – shoes with a sole over 1 inch

Stirrup pants – pants with a strap or “stirrup” that fits around the foot and gives pants a “stretched-out” look

Sundress – descriptive term that includes various styles of dresses, including backless, strapless or dresses with narrow (less than 1” in width) shoulder straps

Tank top – sleeveless shirt, usually with a scoop neckline (cut lower than a t-shirt neckline). This type of shirt may be worn under a jacket or blazer as part of an outfit if the jacket is not removed.

Tattoo-body painting or markings with pigments under the skin